Club Announcements

Court Availability

We are thrilled that the club has been very active! As we continue to foster membership growth, the club will be able to make more improvements to our facilities and otherwise. With this increased activity, please be aware that bumping may be more prevalent. For rules about bumping, please check the Club Rules at pbtennis.com/Rules.

To minimize bumping, be sure to check the Court Calendar for courts that are reserved by Leagues and Instruction at pbtennis.com/Calendar. Note that on Saturdays between 11:30 am and 12:00 pm there is currently only one court available. If you would like to play around this time, please try to schedule matches to end around 11:30 am or start after 12:00 pm.

We are excited about the outlook for this year's improvements and hope you are as well. As always, feel free to reach out to board@pbtennis.com with any comments, questions, or suggestions.

World Team Tennis Sets 2020 Schedule; Nine Teams Including New Chicago Franchise To Compete In 63 Regular-Season Matches July 12-30.

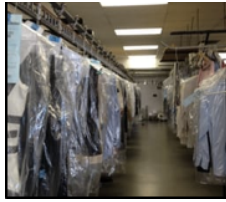

"After what was undoubtedly the league's most successful season by many metrics, World Team Tennis continues its positive growth in 2020 with additional expansion for our 45th season," WTT CEO Carlos Silva said. "In announcing our season schedule, as well as player signings, earlier than in past years, there is an entirely new groundswell of excitement from fans of our nine teams, and for team tennis as a whole, during this time of year."

The 2020 WTT season will see a SoCal rivalry renew on opening night July 12 as the Orange County Breakers, led by Maria Sharapova and Steve Johnson, drive down I-5 to play the San Diego Aviators, led by Ryan Harrison, at Omni La Costa Resort & Spa in Carlsbad, Calif. The teams reverse course the next night, July 13, and compete at Breakers Stadium in Newport Beach, Calif. The Breakers beat the Aviators in the 2017 WTT Final a year after the Aviators downed the Breakers in the 2016 WTT Final.

WTT's complete regular-season schedule can be found by visiting the league's official website, WTT.com.
